

I agree with the FISTS RM-10811. Any other changes would damage the amateur radio community. We still have citezen band radio for those who are not interested in the technical part of radio.